

HAUNTED MANITOBA QUIZ ANSWER KEY

- 4 Which famous hotel in Winnipeg supposedly has a ghost living in Room 202? The Fort Garry Hotel
- 5 Where can you experience the spooky inside of the S.S Keenora ship during Marine Museum's annual Halloween Haunt? Selkirk
- 6 As a museum made up of 25 buildings, it's the narrow train car on site that is supposedly haunted by Sir William Van Horne where people have felt paranormal activity. Name the spooky heritage site in Portage la Prairie: Fort la Reine Museum
- 7 The first Canadian Prime Minister, Sir John A. MacDonald had a son named Sir Hugh John MacDonald who moved to Manitoba. After the tragic loss of many family members, he supposedly now haunts his old house. What is the name of that house? Dalnavert House
- 8 Over four hundred years ago, this captain was betrayed by his crew in a mutiny and left to float ashore in a small boat. His ghost is still rumored to haunt the bay waters which now bears his name located near what became the York Factory, a fur trading fort in the North. Who is this captain? Henry Hudson
- 9 On Victoria Day in 1877, an explosion of fireworks destroyed this building at Lower Fort Gary leaving many injured and one casualty. This building was reconstructed in 1971 and is now rumored to be haunted. It is not uncommon to hear the ghostly sounds of a hammer striking an anvil here. Name the building: Blacksmith Shop

CONTINUED ON SECOND PAGE

HAUNTED MANITOBA QUIZ ANSWER KEY

- 10 Marked with one stone angel - this cemetery is easy to miss. It is estimated to house somewhere between 70-100 graves, yet the exact number of people buried here is unclear. The location with an abandoned farmhouse nearby has been neglected over generations and is home to strange encounters. The land is marshy and its riverbank is eroding away - yet some still hear a voice calling out to them, drawing them into the swamp. Name this cemetery: Nes Cemetery
- 11 Erected in the memory of a ghost to be seen roaming across the plains, this statue overlooks the Trans-Canada Highway, East of St. François Xavier. It pays tribute to an Indigenous legend, in memory of two young lovers torn apart. What animal is the statue? Horse
- 12 Since the 1930s, stories have been told about a light dancing along the railway line in southeast Manitoba. This community would not have existed without the railway. The mysterious light is rumoured to be a lantern carried by the headless ghost of a man who was killed by a train many years ago. Which town is this ghost haunting? Woodridge
- 13 Guests at the L'Auberge Clémence Inn bed-and-breakfast in Elie have reported footsteps on the wooden stairs without anyone being near, doors opening by themselves once they've been closed, and glimpses of a spirits believed to be watching over the house. What was the original intent of this building? Nunnery